The Department of Veterinary Anatomy and Physiology received some equipemnts in a process of establishing a microscopy and imaging centre with the assistance of the Institute of Anatomy, University of Bern, Switzerland under the directorship of Prof. Valentin Djonov. These efforts are being coordinated by Dr. Andrew Makanya who is currently a visiting researcher in University of Bern. The equipment will go a long way in supporting research work and teaching at the Department of Veterinary Anatomy and Physiology. This include an ultramicrotome and a photomicroscope (inset below)
